

What Makes Me a "Trained" Leader

A handy chart to show you what courses you need to be considered a Trained Leader.

My Scouting Job	Youth Protection	Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Job Specific	Outdoor Skills	Advanced Leadership Skills
Tiger Cub Den Leader	Youth Protection	Cub Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Tiger Cub Leader Specific	BALOO	Wood Badge
Cub Scout Den Leader	Youth Protection	Cub Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Den Leader Specific	BALOO	Wood Badge
Webelos Den Leader	Youth Protection	Cub Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Webelos Leader Specific	Webelos Leader Outdoor	Wood Badge
Cubmaster	Youth Protection	Cub Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Cubmaster Specific	BALOO	Wood Badge
Pack Committee	Youth Protection	Cub Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Pack Committee Specific		Wood Badge
Den Chief			Troop Level Junior Leader Training	Den Chief Training
Boy Scout Youth Leaders			Troop Level Junior Leader Training	National Youth Leadership Training
Assistant Scoutmaster	Youth Protection	Boy Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Scoutmaster & Assistant Scoutmaster Training	Boy Scout Outdoor Leader Skills	Wood Badge
Scoutmaster	Youth Protection	Boy Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Scoutmaster & Assistant Scoutmaster Training	Boy Scout Outdoor Leader Skills	Wood Badge
Troop Committee	Youth Protection	Boy Scout Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Troop Committee Challenge		Wood Badge
Venturing Crew Advisor	Youth Protection	Venturing Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Venturing Leader Specific	Powderhorn	Wood Badge
Venturing Crew Committee	Youth Protection	Venturing Leader Fast Start	This Is Scouting	Venturing Leader Specific	Powderhorn	Wood Badge
Venturing Youth	Youth Protection			Venturing Youth Training	Powderhorn

Leaders are trained for their position when all courses in "green" areas are complete. If leader changes position, additional training may be required to be considered "Trained".